SAINT NICHOLAS SCHOOL
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

THE SAINT NICHOLAS SONG

All hail to thee, Saint Nicholas;
All hail to our alma mater.
May we ever be true to the yellow and blue
Of our dear Saint Nicholas.

Let us sing to each class to be
And each class that ever has been.
Make a right merry cheer
For the friends true and dear
Of our dear Saint Nicholas.

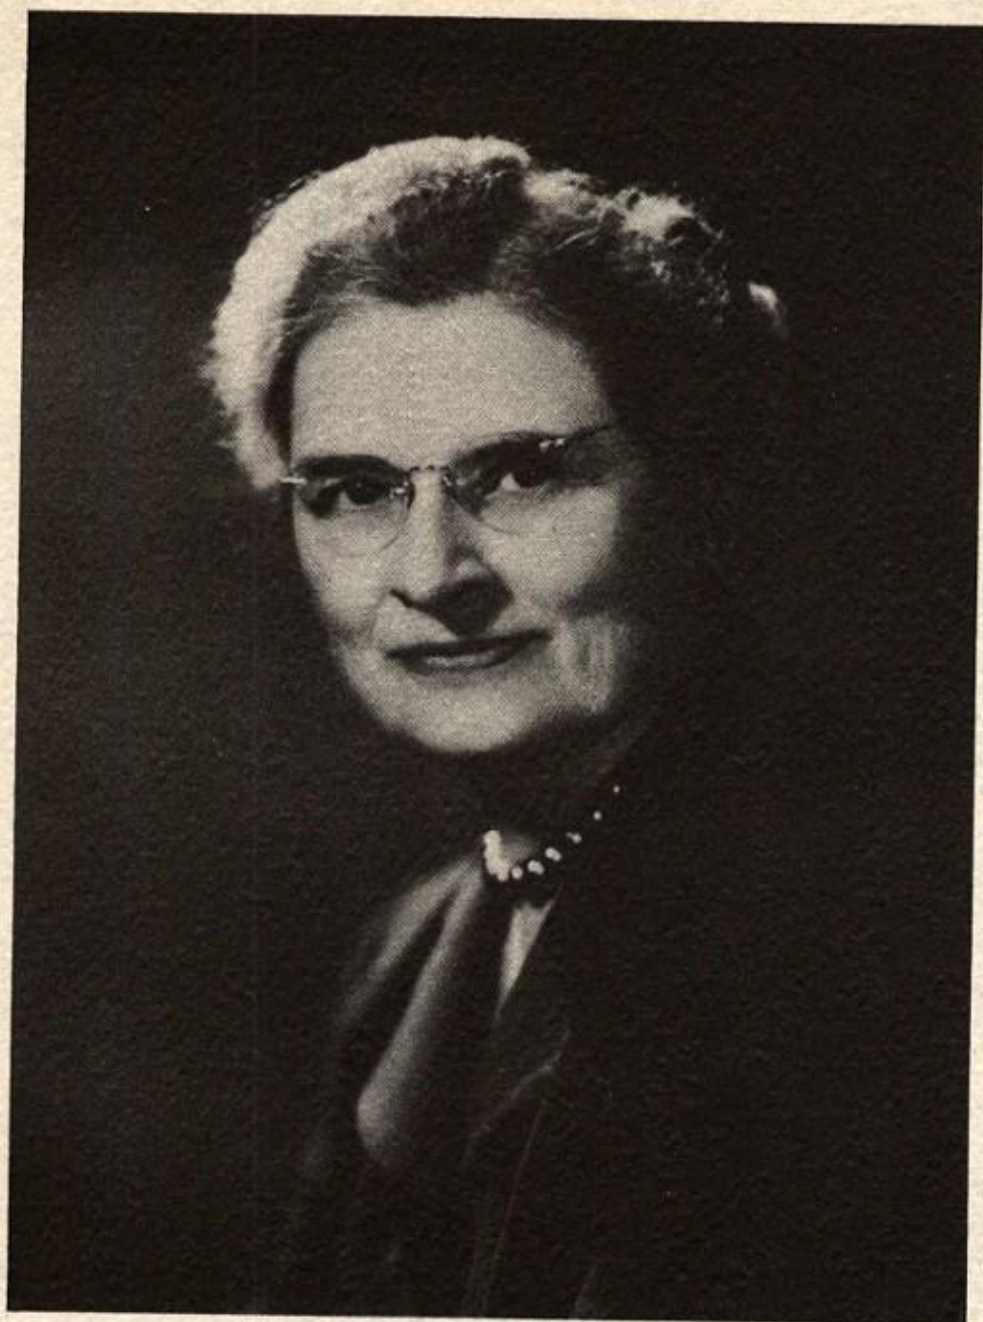

From these school days we'll soon be free
But oft we will seek in memory
The days that are past
Far too joyous to last
Of our dear Saint Nicholas.

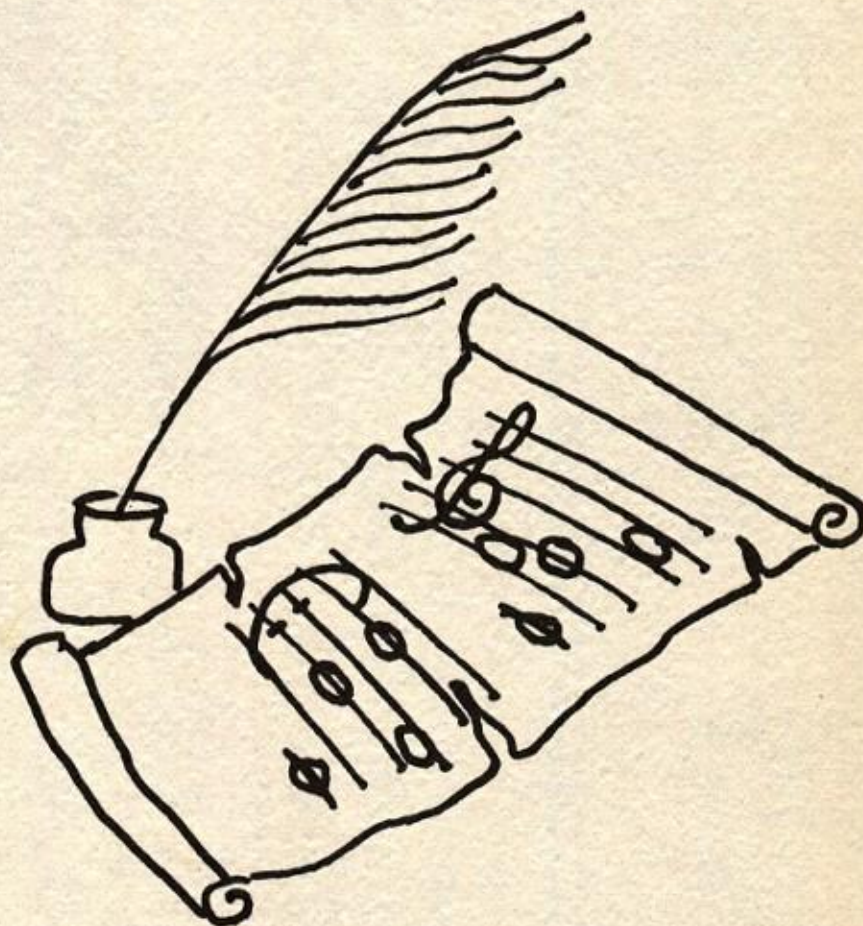

DEDICATION

We, the members of the Class of 1950, dedicate this Cantoria to Miss Sinclair in grateful appreciation of her understanding and efficiency in recognizing our problems and helping us solve them.

"Her every tone is music's own,
Like those of morning birds,
And something more than melody
Dwells ever in her words."

SENIOR CLASS SONG

To you we pledge
Our hearts in unity,
The good times we have shared with you,
The memories —
Each passing year, we've shed a tear,
Together we've laughed, and together we've feared,
And happy days of school
Those funny things we do,
Will always bring good cheer,
We've known you, and we have loved you,
The Class of '50 through the years.

SHARON CALLISON

Voted "Senior with the Most Talent," Sharon acts as the guiding light of our class. In addition to being a truly gifted comedy actress and possessing outstanding creative writing ability, she is our wonderful Class President, and last year was Vice-President of the Student Government Association. Her renditions of "Sleepy Lagoon" have amused everyone, and her enthusiasm, spontaneity, and sense of fair play will win her a welcome wherever she goes.

"KITTEN ON THE KEYS"

COREEN AGNEW

Good-natured and hard-working, Coreen has shown herself capable and efficient in all school activities from Class Treasurer to Snaps Editor of the Cantoria. Since her entry in her Junior year, her ready wit has constantly cheered us, and her sports ability has been valuable on more than one occasion. Coreen will linger long in our thoughts as the personality girl of the class of 1950.

"CANADIAN CAPERS"

JANET BARKER

Whenever we hear gay lighter and the strumming of a ukulele, we will always think of Janet. She joined us in her Junior year, and has brightened our lives ever since. Besides being our manager for the dance season and for our championship basketball team, she has shown her talent by a splendid performance in the Senior play. She has left us many wonderful memories.

"TWO GUITARS"

BARBARA BRIDGERS

Always full of smiles and undying energy, and ready to lend a helping hand — that's Barbara, our Southern belle. Since migrating here from North Carolina, she immediately became a valuable member of the class and was captain in her Sophomore year. A born diplomat and peace-maker, Barbara is as hospitable as her native state, and those marvelous times at her house are unforgettable.

"CAROLINA MOON"

MARY JANE BROWN

M.J. is one of those amazing all-around girls who has been active in sports as well as establishing a fine scholastic record. As Secretary-Treasurer of Lambda last spring, and President this year, she has helped maintain the two principles of Saint Nicholas — personal honor and consideration for others. By the way, if you are looking for a game of tennis, you should watch out. Mary Jane won the tennis cup last year!

"HAND ME DOWN MY WALKING CANE"

GEORGI CULLITON

When Georgi comes along with her beaming smile, we really pack up our troubles and smile too. She has an outstanding personality and has proved herself an able Senior class captain. Besides adding much to the Senior Play, she was also excellently cast as "Mary" in the Christmas Pageant. Never to be forgotten for her friendliness and gracious hospitality, we know that all her days will be happy ones.

"GIVE ME MY BOOTS AND SADDLE"

NATALIE DODGE

Quiet, lovable Natalie will always be thought of as a very necessary member of our class. Her loyalty, helpfulness, and enthusiasm have endeared her to all of us, and she has participated in many school activities. It would certainly be hard to forget one of our ablest class secretaries — or one of our most talented actresses, for Natalie gave a hilarious performance as Bummy in the Senior Play!

"HONEY BUN"

"DARK EYES"

MARY JANE DURAND

Mary Jane, who came from Anacortes last fall, immediately fitted in with the class and became active in many different fields. As dance season manager for the class of 1950 this spring, she quickly proved her leadership ability. Although Mary Jane has been at Saint Nicholas only a short time, she will always be remembered as a very special part of our class.

ANNE EDMISTON

While Anne was another latecomer to Saint Nicholas, she has become one of the most valued and beloved members of our class. Her winning personality, athletic ability, and leadership were at once discovered and put to good use, for she was class captain in both her Junior and Senior years. In addition she was Activities Editor of the Cantoria, and the Senior Play uncovered a real dramatist in our midst.

"DEAR HEARTS AND GENTLE PEOPLE"

JOAN JUDSON

Joan is the only girl in the class who has been in Saint Nicholas since the first grade. Liked by everyone for her friendliness and warm smile, she has always done well in athletics and scholarship, and has twice won the General Scholarship cup. Besides serving in the past as class captain, this year she has been editor-in-chief of the Cantoria and Glee Club president. Joan will be remembered as one of the truly outstanding members of the Senior Class.

"NOW IS THE HOUR"

KAROL KENNEDY

When it comes to cutting capers either in school or on the ice, Karol can do both, for we have a real world's champion in the class. Karol has been with us for two years, and as business manager of the Senior Play has proved her efficiency in more than one way. Her humorous ways and friendly smiles have gained her a warm place in our hearts.

"THE SKATER'S WALTZ"

BARBEE LEASE

Barbee is our typical Saint Nicholas girl, and does everything well. A born leader, she is President of Student Government this year, after having held every other office in the Association. In her four years at Saint Nicholas she has been active in almost every field. She proved her athletic ability in sports and was manager of two championship baseball teams. In the Christmas Pageant and the Senior Play she displayed her dramatic talent. Through her leadership, the class of 1950 has made many fine records.

"IT'S MAGIC"

MARILYN LOW

If you see a golden blonde head bobbing down the hall, you will know that it is our Marilyn. Glamorous and gracious, she is one of the most beloved members of our class. We shall never forget her as Janey in the leading part of our Senior Play, nor shall we forget her many honors and achievements. In addition to being class captain and Secretary-Treasurer of Lambda, she has won that well-earned art cup. This year her artistic talent was really brought forth, for she has done all the art work for your Cantoria!

"OLD MASTER PAINTER"

"IN MY MERRY OLDSMOBILE"

MARIAN McKEOWN

Although Marian has only been at Saint Nicholas for her Senior year, she showed from the first that she would be a wonderful member of the class of 1950. She carried out her part in the Christmas Pageant well, and has been a real addition to the Glee Club. Aside from these achievements, Marian can always be counted on to amuse everyone when she tells of her adventures in driving from Everett every day!

ELEANOR SCHWABACHER

Ellie may be our smallest member, but she is one of our most important ones. Who is the leader of the assembly line? Who else can draw a sketch so real that it almost walks away? As editor of the Jinks last year, and as assistant editor of the Cantoria, she has shown both her efficiency and wonderful sense of humor. With a fine scholastic record, always full of fun, Ellie is liked by everyone and has made an outstanding place for herself in Saint Nicholas.

"FIVE FOOT TWO"

NANCY SKINNER

The class of 1950 scarcely realized what lay in its future when Nancy came as a Freshman. She has held an office in the Athletic Association for three years, won the S Girl award for a Junior distinguishing herself in physical education activities, and now has climaxed her career as President of the Athletic Association. Seldom is seen such an all-around athlete and sports enthusiast, or a girl who will be longer remembered for her personality, straight-forwardness, and love of monkeys.

"TEA FOR TWO"

MIRIAM STEDMAN

Friendly, carefree Miriam joined our class when she was a Sophomore. She immediately became active in sports, as well as showing talent for writing. This year, as manager of the Senior food sales, Miriam has done a wonderful job—and who could forget her portrayal of Sir Joseph Porter in the Glee Club presentation of Pinafore!

"CALIFORNIA HERE I COME"

LYSBETH WARREN

For six years Lysbeth has set an outstanding example of leadership. From star guard on the basketball team to reader at the Christmas Pageant, her activities have been numerous. She has been class captain, stage manager of the Senior Play, business manager of the Cantoria, and a Glee Club member. Full of enthusiasm, she is known for her short golden hair, sunny smile, and striking figure.

"A PRETTY GIRL IS LIKE A MELODY"

J U N I O R C L A S S

To make sure that everyone in the high school knew everyone else, the Juniors held their annual skating party at the Roller Bowl on October 22nd. The event was in honor of the Seniors, although the other two classes were also invited.

On November 22nd Miss Shields was honored at a tea given for the faculty and the mothers of the junior girls. Miss Stevens and Mrs. Ferguson poured.

The Student Government Mixer found the class of '51 on the stage diaper-clad in a conga line. You see, the Juniors are the babies of the high school. Rita Giese was their mother.

The annual Junior Prom was given at the Sunset Club on February 11th. Both the Juniors and the Seniors were there, and everyone had a marvelous time.

The class of '51 took over the Junior Jinks with enthusiasm. In their second class meeting they elected Margaret Bachschies and Jeanne Smiley co-editors; Caroline Howe, art editor; Betsy Stone, humor editor; and Sally Ingraham, sports editor. With the wonderful cooperation shown by the staff and reporters, each copy of the Jinks has been a real success.

Because of the participation and interest of each girl in the many class projects, the Juniors feel that they will have an outstanding record as Seniors in 1951.

SOPHOMORE CLASSES

The opening day of school dawned bright with expectation for the Sophomore Class, and they were one rung higher on the ladder to the supreme position of being SENIORS! The two new additions, Sylvia Nowell and Joyce Fowler, easily assumed their positions as members of the class and drifted along until late in September. Then for two hilarious days these unfortunates joined the Freshmen in being informally initiated into Lambda Theta Upsilon. Bearing up under the strain, they managed to survive until the formal initiation when the whole Sophomore Class received their pins.

Also in September they enjoyed a fabulous slumber party at Virginia Marion's home. Between the football, the food, and the canasta we succeeded in having a wonderful time. In December our annual tea was given in the library which looked very colorful and Christmasy.

Basketball season was a huge success, and the Sophomores managed to squeeze into the semi-finals. In May their farewell party for the Seniors was held and everyone enjoyed herself immensely. The Sophomores played their usual big part in the festivities of Activities Day.

Everyone in school was sorry to see the Seniors go, but particularly the Sophomores, for, after all, the Seniors had launched them! Next year, however, we will have a new group of Seniors and all the Sophomores are looking forward to another fine year.

FRESHMAN CLASS

The Freshman Class is proud of its activities this year. The first event of the year was the class tea on October 25th honoring Mrs. Marshall Jones and Miss Doreen Lidgate. At the Student Government Mixer the class proved its versatility by presenting a skit showing what it wished to accomplish during the year. At Christmas time the girls donated $25.00 to the Seattle Times Christmas Fund.

To supplement the money in its treasury the class voted to sponsor a modern dance program presented by the Oregon State College on March 24th. The last event of the year will be a party at the Tennis Club in May for the Freshmen's sister class, the Juniors.

The Freshman Class has had a good record in sports so far and plans to maintain it.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Neil, adviser, the class has gone far this year and expects to do even more in the next three years.

Personal honor and consideration for others are the two great ideals of St. Nicholas which the Student Government Association helps to promote. By means of a personal honor system the Association tries to make the girls realize the necessity for co-operation. The Student Government officers, with the faculty and students, aid in creating more understanding and fellowship in our school life.

The main purpose of the Lambda Theta Upsilon Association is raising money for different charities. The Bazaar, held every other year, is the chief money-making project, but the organization also sponsors campaigns for the March of Dimes, C.A.R.E., the Community Chest, the Red Cross and the Orthopedic Hospital. The members consist of girls from the three upper classes, while the Freshmen are not formally initiated until their Sophomore year.

"S" Girl. In 1949 Barbara Johanson presented the school with a plaque on which the name of the "S" girl of each year is to be engraved. To win this honor a student must be the most outstanding participator in all sports. The list is headed by one of the best all-around athletes St. Nicholas has ever had—Nancy Skinner.

The Athletic Association helps to further good sportsmanship and interest in athletics. Each year is highlighted by the Father-Daughter Banquet and championship basketball game, the Dance Program, and Activities Day, when the finals of the various tournaments are played off. Active membership in the Athletic Association is of great benefit to all, for it helps the girls to become better acquainted with each other and to feel the value of teamwork.

FATHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET

The Father-Daughter Banquet and championship basketball game are always greatly anticipated events. This year, however, something new was added, for we were entertained during dinner by Janet Barker, Joanne Ives, Joan Lydgate, and Pat Wright—those four ukulele girls. Climaxing a week of playoffs, the opposing teams were finally chosen. As in the two previous years, the class of 1950 won the pennant, but only after an exciting game with the Juniors.

Left to Right—Natalie Dodge, Barbee Lease, Marilyn Low, Anne Edmiston, Mary Jane Brown, Eleanor Schwabacher, Nancy Skinner, Joan Judson.

Nancy Skinner
Marilyn Low

The Senior Play of Saint Nicholas is one of the most important events of the year. Last November "Janey's One-Track Mind," a three-act comedy by Dorothy Bennett and Link Hannah, was presented, with Marilyn Low taking the lead. The cast included: Anne Edmiston as Muriel, Joan Judson as George, Natalie Dodge as Bummy, Barbara Bridgers as Mrs. Post, Georgi Culliton as Alice, Nancy Skinner as Stuart, Barbee Lease as Roger, Eleanor Schwabacher as Annabelle, Janet Barker as Tommy, Sharon Callison as Camilla, Coreen Agnew as Luella, Karol Kennedy as Honey, Mary Jane Brown as Martin, and Lysbeth Warren as State Trooper Harrity. The success of the play was largely due to the able coaching of Miss Granger.

CHRISTMAS PAGEANT

Each year one of three different sets of tableaux is presented by the Senior class at the Christmas Festival. This year's pageant, the "Hand Maiden's Search," consisted of seven tableaux, each depicting a scene in the search for Christ. The part of the Hand Maiden was taken by Barbee Lease, and Lysbeth Warren was the reader.

GLEE CLUB

Front Row—(left to right)—Jackie Jackson, Millicent Childers, Lynn Morgenstern, Joanne Ives, Judy Callison, Esther Buschke, Barbara Bridgers, Miriam Stedman. Second Row—Karen Dooley, Joan Judson, Joanne Martin, Cornelia Fitch, Linda Lytel, Jerrie Heathcote, Sharon Mullins, Mimi Robinson. Top Row—Marian McKeown, Joan Lydgate, Peggy Sue Graham, Carla Overby, Jane Powell, Sandra Rotton, Shirley Overby, Lois Wilson.

THE GLEE CLUB. Under the able direction of Mrs. Jones, the Glee Club has presented many outstanding performances. Among these are the Christmas Pageant, an assembly, and the most outstanding of all, "H.M.S. Pinafore," given on March 17, for the Mothers' Club.

The outstanding Glee Club performance of the year, directed by Mrs. Jones, was "H.M.S. Pinafore," in which Miriam Stedman, the Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Porter, K.C.B., had the lead. Others in the cast were: Esther Bushke as Captain Corcoran, Joan Judson as Ralph Rackstraw, Jackie Jackson as Josephine, Lynn Morgenstern as Hebe, and Jill Bekins as Little Buttercup. The rest of the High School Glee Club members and the Seventh and Eighth Grade girls were in the choruses.

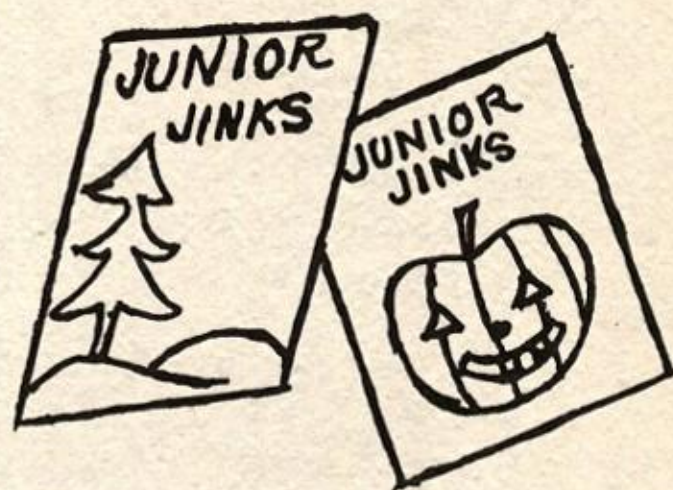

STAFF AT T WORK

It's here! It's on sale! Bring your dime! Yes, it's the Junior Jinks, published several times each year by the Junior class. This paper, full of articles, school activities, and jokes, is always much looked forward to. The co-editors this year have been Margaret Backshies and Jeanne Smiley, under the watchful eye of Miss Granger.

SENIOR

On April 14 the Senior Class gave its annual high school dance in the gymnasium. The theme, "April Showers," was effectively carried out by the use of crepe flowers, raindrops, and umbrellas. Through the cooperation of everyone, the dance was a great success.

PROPHECY

Arriving one hour late at the home of Barbara Bridgers, my old friend and hostess, I was not surprised to find the members of the class as spry in 1990 as they had been in 1950. Walking in, I found Crazy Callison occupying her customary place at the piano, playing "Sleepy Lagoon" with one finger. Over in the corner, a lively bridge game was in session with Barbee Lease, Nancy Skinner, Karol Kennedy, and Coreen Agnew, who were daintily slurping their tea and pulling cards out of their sleeves.

In a secluded spot I found Mary Jane Durand and Natalie Dodge who were deciphering one of Virgil's old Latin manuscripts. Dragging in a little later with her usual excuse of getting her car stuck in the mud, was Igroeg Culliton, at whose home we have spent many enjoyable hours. A loud blast from a horn called attention to a red Plymouth convertible that screeched to a stop. From this conveyance emerged Anne Edmiston and Marilyn Low.

Sounds of discord were heard in the next room where Barbara Bridgers and Ellie Schwabacher were busy battling over whose dog looked more like a cocker spaniel. Marian McKeown was upsetting all the furniture in a wild search for her baby picture, while Pooh Agnew had interrupted the bridge game and was running back and forth collecting money for a Lily Pons recital. Stedman was busily concocting a potion to make hair grow faster, and muttering magic charms to herself.

A little later a group known as the Sun Valley Girls (alias Lodge Skiers) congregated in a corner to show their various degrees of sunburn. Georgi Culliton was proudly displaying a gold medal which had been awarded to her for getting the best tan. Marilyn Low and Lys Warren were harmonizing on "When a Swiss Boy Goes Calling" and practicing yodeling effects, accompanied by Janet Barker on her uke. Coreen, Barbee, Mary Jane Brown and Joan Judson were busy singing in their cracked voices, "It Happened in Sun Valley," while Barbara Bridgers, Natalie Dodge and Ellie Schwabacher were demonstrating how they had learned to snowplow down Half Dollar.

Everyone was happy to learn that Lys Warren, who had a job as head cook at Sun Valley, had invited us all to meet there for a class reunion the following Spring, provided that we would still be alive after another day with the Class of 1950.
